Graphic Artist Debra Valencia Debuts As Licensed Artist

Internationally renowned graphic artist Debra Valencia, who most recently signed a licensing agreement with Quadriga Art, will make her licensing debut at the Craft and Hobby Association Winter Show at the Anaheim Convention Center in Anaheim, California, February 10-13. Valencia will be located in Booth #3286 in the licensing and design division of the show. Valencia currently licenses more than 175 products in the stationery and greeting card industry. Her contemporary style of graphic patterns is applicable to craft products, decorative accessories, ceramics, textiles and more.
