

Debra Valencia Serves Up Dinnerware

Dec 02, 2016 | By License Global

Designer Debra Valencia has entered into a new license agreement with tabletop company Certified International for branded dinnerware and serveware.

The Brand Liaison, the exclusive licensing agent for Debra Valencia, brokered the deal.

The new line will include melamine plates, bowls, trays and platters. Certified International has also secured the rights to add complementary ceramic products.

The first products are slated to hit stores in spring 2017, with additional collections to follow.
